

MEMO From the Office of the Town Manager

TO: Colchester Selectboard
FROM: Andrew Bolduc, Deputy Town Manager; Zachary Maia, Director of Planning & Zoning
CC: Aaron Frank, Town Manager; Renae Marshall, Deputy Town Manager
DATE: July 17, 2026
RE: Updates to FY27 Planning and Zoning Fee Schedule to include an increase in “Bianchi” Letters

Issue:

The issue is whether or not the Selectboard shall approve the proposed amendments to the Colchester Code of Ordinances, Chapter 6 ½ Fees for Permits and Licenses Generally following a public hearing held on August 11, 2026 as per the recommendation contained in this memo from Andrew Bolduc, Deputy Town Manager and Zachary Maia, Director of Planning & Zoning dated July 17, 2026.

Background:

Bianchi Letters - At the May 12th regular Selectboard meeting, then Planning & Zoning Director, Cathynn LaRose, updated the Selectboard on the Town’s current practice of issuing Zoning Compliance Certificates (commonly referred to as “Bianchi Letters”). In her memo and in the subsequent discussion, she relayed that the Town provides a higher level of research prior to issuing these Certificates than likely any other community in Vermont. This enhanced process helps the Town and the parties to the transaction be aware of and potentially correct any zoning violations at the time of property transfer. This is particularly significant in sensitive areas including wetlands, shoreland, and floodplains.

With current staffing capacity, because of the significant staff time it takes to do the research involved with issuing these Certificates, it can create a backlog that may be as long as three to four weeks from the request. While this is within the bounds of a reasonable response time given the length of time prior to closing in a typical real estate transaction, for unfamiliar realtors and attorneys this timeline can create a lot of frustration and the perception that the Town is holding up closings.

To continue to provide this service and potentially enhance response times, staff recommended increasing current fees from $131 to $262 for residential certificates and from $236 to $354 for commercial certificates. This would allow the Town to recoup a fee that is more closely in line with the amount of administrative time it takes in researching and processing these requests, as well as generate enough revenue to increase staffing capacity and improve the service.

Other Updates to FY27 Fee Schedule – Under Colchester Code of Ordinances, Chapter 6 ½, Planning and Zoning fees shall be payable “as prescribed herein.” Sec. 6½-4(a). The fees are then “increased each fiscal year according to the Consumer Price Index” for the prior calendar year and rounded up to the nearest dollar. Id. As written in the Ordinance, those increases are administrative, and the updates are to be noticed with the Selectboard and posted annually on the town website. Id.

In reviewing the Ordinance to propose updates to the fee schedule for Bianchi Letters, staff found that the Fee Schedule, while posted online, is not specifically prescribed within the Ordinance. It is therefore recommended that the Fee Schedule updates for FY27, including the Bianchi Letter increase, be included in the Ordinance as a new Table 6a. Per the Ordinance, these would continue to be adjusted by CPI every year and posted on the website.

Proposed Changes:

To prescribe Planning and Zoning Fee Schedule updates for FY27 to include a larger proposed increase in Bianchi Letters, a new Table 6a will be included within the Ordinance. There are no other proposed language changes.

In drafting these changes, staff in the Town Manager’s Office collaborated with Planning and Zoning staff.

Consistent with the current Ordinance, all regular CPI-based FY27 Planning & Zoning fee adjustments will be effective July 1st. The Bianchi Letter fee adjustments will be effective 21 days after the Selectboard’s approval, following the public hearing.

Staff Recommendation/Proposed Motion:

The Colchester Selectboard moves to approve the proposed amendments to the Colchester Code of Ordinances, Chapter 6 ½ Fees for Permits and Licenses Generally, following a public hearing held on August 11, 2026 as per the recommendation contained in this memo from Andrew Bolduc, Deputy Town Manager and Zachary Maia, Director of Planning & Zoning dated July 17, 2026.
